

Planning on Dying Preparation Worksheet

Date:

Part 2- After Death

My greatest hope and desire for myself in the processes that occur after my death is:

My greatest hope and desire for others in the processes that occur after my death is:

After I die, I have the following general preferences or concerns about how my body is handled:

I have the following concerns about what happens to my body in these specific circumstances:

At home:

In a hospital morgue:

In a Nursing Home:

If my body goes to a mortician or funeral home:

In an Emergency Situation:

If I am autopsied:

If my organs are donated:

Actions I could take now in order to address these concerns:

I have the following preferences about organ or body donation after my death:

I would like the following persons or funeral home to be involved with the care and preparation of my body.

Actions I could take now in order to ensure this:

I have the following preferences about where my body is waked or interred before cremation or burial:

Actions I could take now to address these preferences:

It is important to me that the following people know about my death:

After I die, I have the following concerns about or wishes for my survivors:

Actions I may need to take now in order to address these concerns:

After I die, I believe that offering the following spiritual practices will help me:

Actions I could take now in order to ensure this:

Clothing I would like my body to be buried/ cremated/ waked in:

Other things I would want my body to be buried/cremated/ waked with:

I have the following preferences for my body being buried, scattered, interned :

Procedure or Process:

Specific wishes for Donation of Body parts or Body:

Casket or other containers:

“Final resting place” (Location):

Tombstone , Marker or Plaque:

Actions I could take now in order to promote these preferences:

