Part 3: Death Rites, Relationships and Possessions

My greatest overall hope and desire for a post-death rites or rituals:

If I were designing my own ceremony in the best of all possible worlds...

I would like the following people to be involved with helping create my ceremony:

What I would like the people that participate to know / feel / do/ receive:

I would enjoy the following music/ readings / acts / rituals to be performed for me:

Things that I definately don't want for or at my ceremony:

Actions I may need to take now in order to address these desires:

Specific concerns or considerations for my ceremony if the case of sudden or violent death:

Other things that are important for my survivors to know:

Actions I could take now to insure that this is made known:

Concerns for dependent or other relationships:

Actions I may need to take now in order to address these concerns and bring closure:

Instructions for possessions and things that I leave behind.

It is important to me that the following things be cared for or distributed in a certain way (use back if more space is needed):

Actions I could take now in order to address these concerns:

Other Concerns, Requests or Issues you would like to address:
